

I am feeling so "behind" in life...

All my friends are getting married, buying houses, and having kids...

okay stop.

Look I get it, our minds are designed to make comparisons. But your timeline is NOT the same as anyone else's

Some people find love in their 50's

Some people take huge risks in their 30's

Some people find purpose in their 40's

Some people say f*ck it and travel in their 20's

And everyone's timeline is perfectly okay. Life does NOT end at 25.

Let's stop acting like it does.
